From junior explorers to established mining organizations, we craft strategies designed around your specific goals, stage, and needs.

04

05

Cost-Effective

Our services are built to be flexible and cost-conscious, helping you strengthen your social media presence without requiring a large marketing budget.

FREE COMMUNICATION TRAINING

Geocommunication 101

A complimentary benefit for MineLife Media clients

Effective communication is the foundation of successful mining projects and strong public engagement. That's why MineLife Media offers all clients free access to Geocommunication 101, a specialized short course developed in partnership with Geologize Ltd.

This exclusive mini-course introduces the core principles of geocommunication, helping you collaborate more effectively with our services and strengthen your social media presence.

Why this matters

Geocommunication 101 empowers you and your team to communicate more clearly, generate stronger content ideas, and contribute to a more informed and positive public perception of the mining industry.

UGC & Influencer Work

At MineLife Media, we understand the power of authentic, engaging content. Our UserGenerated Content (UGC) and Influencer Work services leverage personal branding and real-life experiences to create compelling narratives that resonate with audiences. Here are some examples of our success in this area:

Copper Game Instagram Takeover

Client: Montana Resources

To increase Instagram engagement during the annual Copper Game, we led a “day in the life” Instagram takeover using UGC and Jess’s personal brand as a Montana Tech alumna.

Results:

- 18% increase in Instagram followers
- Reels exceeding 2,000 views
- Average engagement rate of 4.8% on the day

Kickstarting TikTok Presence

Client: Juno Jones

We executed a month-long TikTok takeover to establish the brand's presence and support sales through short-form video content.

Results:

- Nearly 1,500% increase in TikTok followers
- Strong foundation for ongoing TikTok marketing
- Increased brand awareness among younger audiences

Comprehensive Event Coverage

Client: Montana Mining Association

We delivered end-to-end content and social media coverage for the 2024 Annual Meeting, including photography, videography, and live platform management.

Results:

- 75+ new LinkedIn followers in just three days
- Increased impressions and engagement on Facebook and LinkedIn
- Stress-free social media management during the conference
- Creation of a reusable content library for future marketing

Client testimonials

MINELIFE MEDIA

We're proud to work with a diverse range of clients in the mining and related industries. From junior explorers to established consultancies and educational institutions, we're equipped to handle the unique social media needs of any organization in the mining ecosystem.

Rare Earth Ridge Resources

"Jessica and her team at Mine Life Media are addressing a critical gap in our industry. As the need for distinct investment strategies and project differentiators grows, their approach of crafting tailored, brand- and ethos-centric communication strategies, especially through social media, stands out as both unique and essential for the industry."

World Museum of Mining

"Jess is a pleasure to work with. She creates content unique for our business and does a great job with consistent branding. She is open to our feedback and helps our staff look at social media and its impact from a different perspective. It's a relief to know our message is getting out there and staff does not have to dedicate hours and hours to creating content, publishing and follow up."

Montana Bureau of Mines & Geology

Jess/MLM has significantly boosted our social media presence, is professional, proactive, and easy to work with, and perhaps most importantly, she knows the geosciences/industry!"

"Jess and the MineLife Media team are effective and fun to work with. The content they produce is crafted to be in line with our mission and is fun and informative for the public we serve."

How much does your service cost?

Our management pricing starts at $500/month, but we tailor our services to fit your specific needs and budget. We'll provide a custom quote after our initial consultation.

Which social media platforms do you specialize in?

We focus on the platforms most relevant to the mining industry, including LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube. We're also experienced in leveraging platforms like Instagram and TikTok for reaching younger audiences.

Can you help with investor relations on social media?

Absolutely! We have experience in crafting social media strategies that support investor relations efforts, including communicating company milestones, financial results, and growth strategies in a compliant and engaging way

What software and equipment do you need or provide?

At MLM our services are all inclusive, meaning the customers only pay for special equipment and software needs. We bring our own cameras, the Adobe suite of products, etc.

What businesses do you work with?

While MLM specializes in mining, construction, geoscience, and industrial supply our unique perspective can bring benefits for a wide variety of customers
